The Selection Criteria for selection of ‘Probable Players’ for Indian Kabaddi Teams Men & Women / Indian Kabaddi Teams – Men & women

The Selection Committee under the chairmanship of Administrator / President of the federation comprises of coaches selected in the following manner:

In order to create a database of coaches, Applications from coaches are invited online by the federation from time to time. These applications are scrutinized and short listed on the basis of their qualification, experience in coaching, awards won etc. Interaction with the short listed candidates is conducted by the Administrator / President by physical mode or video conference mode.

The Administrator / President selects best possible coaches to be the members of the selection committee, for every National Championship / National Camps.

These selected members are given directions and guidelines by the Administrator / President for selecting the best players amongst participating players in the National Championships, and to keep day to day record. The list of selected coaches is published on the website of the Federation.

These coaches select probable players on the basis of their regular performance during the Championship.

Immediately after the National Championship, the list of selected probable players is submitted to the Administrator/ President, along with certification by the coaches that the players selected are the best players of that national championship. This list is uploaded on the website of the Federation.

Outstanding players who could not play National Championship for any reason but have performed outstanding in other Kabaddi competitions in the country are also given consideration to be selected as probable players by the selection committee. After interaction with these players by the Administrator, these probable players are included in the list of Probable Players for National Coaching Camp on the basis of performance.

Out of the above players, ‘Core Probable Players’ are selected by the selection committee on their performance in the national coaching camp.

Out of the above core probable players, Indian Kabaddi teams Men & Women are selected by the selection Committee after interaction with each player by the Administrator / President.
